

Vacancy Assistant F&B Leader at The BodyHoliday St Lucia.

We seek a dynamic, ambitious and self-motivated Food & Beverage professional to join our team as the Assistant Food & Beverage Leader.

As the Assistant Food & Beverage Leader, you are responsible for delivering innovative Food & Beverage operations for the hotel from concept design to opening. These complete Food & Beverage systems must deliver concepts that exceed our guest's expectations in the most efficient way within the given budget and time frame to ensure the long-term success of the company. The role will include key responsibilities such as:

Preparing food and beverage concept briefs based on quantifiable market forces and situational requirements

Controlling and administering documents for a multitude of simultaneously running projects

Operating equipment knowledge, assessment and research

Working collaboratively with others from a wide range of disciplines both internally and externally

Acting as knowledge resource for food and beverage within the Projects department

Delivering required documents and feedback in a timely fashion

Skills

Education, Qualifications & Experiences

You must be computer literate, Possess effective presentation and communication skills along with an excellent command of written and spoken English. Ability to read, understand and analyze financial and market data is a must.

Knowledge & Competencies

The ideal candidate will be a self-driven professional with a solid Food & Beverage background with a passion for quality and excellence. Able to complete projects in a timely and accurate fashion is critical. You must be detail oriented, have strong organizational, established analytical skills and should possess following competencies:

Understanding the Business

Planning for Business

Valuing Diversity

Adaptability

Customer Focus

Team Building

Leading People

Drive for Results

Managing Operations

Responses with CV attached: via email to hrmail@thebodyholiday.com